

My 94 year old aunt who is blind and in a nursing home had received telemarketing calls almost daily which was upsetting her. I placed her on the no call list and now she gets very few if any. I strongly support the no call list in our state!

Jean Palmer.